through 20,

WHEREAS, plaintiffs in the above-entitled action have served upon non-party Walmart, Inc., a subpoena for the production of documents, and for a deposition pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P.

30(b)96); and,

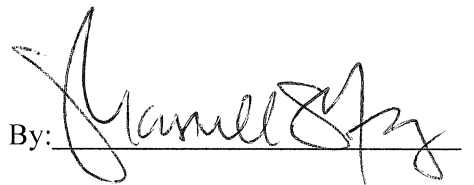

WHEREAS, Walmart, Inc. contends that some of the documents and information sought constitute confidential information which should not be publicly disclosed; and,

WHEREAS, the parties in this action have previously agreed to a Stipulated Protective Order, which was entered by this Court on January 3, 2007, (Docket No. 290), which sets forth comprehensive procedures for handling confidential information and documents, and which Walmart, Inc. and the plaintiffs believe adequately address Walmart, Inc.'s concerns in responding to the subpoena served by plaintiffs,

NOW, WHEREFORE, plaintiffs and Walmart, Inc. agree that the previously entered Stipulated Protective Order should be extended to cover Walmart, Inc.'s responses to discovery in the above-entitled action.

IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD.
